

April Class Sign-Up
Watercolor with Linda Brandenburg
Saturday, April 18, 2026

Please join us as we welcome Linda Brandenburg to DAGSO for the first time. Linda grew up in New Carlisle and received her BFA from Miami University. After retiring in 2017, she took art classes through the Sinclair College Senior Program. Linda is a wonderful watercolorist and has won several awards for her artwork at various art shows. She is the President of Fairborn Art Association as well as a member of the Western Ohio Watercolor Society. She will be teaching a class in Englewood starting this April.

Surface: black watercolor paper available from the instructor for $2.00.

Supplies to bring:

A water basin (or two) for clean and dirty water, paper towels, a palette for mixing paint with wells, tracing paper, Saral brand white graphite paper (no wax), a red ball point pen for transferring the pattern or a stylus, masking tape and a gator board or foam core board to tape the project down on. A set of metallic paints if you don't buy one from the instructor. (The instructor cannot guarantee the results if you use different metallic paints than what she is providing.)

A set of metallic paints are available from the instructor for $19.00.
